

Your Rights

Quality Care

You have the right to:

- Equal care regardless of age, race, ethnicity, religion, culture or language.
- Equal care regardless of physical or mental disability, socio-economic status.
- Equal care regardless of sex, sexual orientation, and gender identity or expression.
- Have your culture, values, beliefs and preferences respected.
- Quality care in a safe setting by skilled doctors and staff.
- Have your pain managed.

Safety

You have the right to:

- Be free from neglect, misuse, verbal, mental, physical and sexual abuse.
- Be informed if something goes wrong with your care.
- Be free from seclusion or restraints unless needed for safety.
- Have access to protective and advocacy services.

Meaningful Interactions

You have the right to:

- Be informed of your current health status.
- Help decide the plan for your care.
- Take part in your care as desired.
- A person of your choice, and your doctor, notified promptly when admitted to the hospital.
- Choose a person (lay caregiver) to be involved in your plan of care before and or after discharge.
- Be informed of care outcomes, treatment, and services you need for current and future decisions.

- Refuse care or refuse to consent.
- Written or verbal messages you understand.
- Hospital provided interpreting services at no cost to you.
- Get information in a manner that meets your needs for vision, speech, hearing or cognitive impairments.
- Review your chart with your caregivers at any time during your stay.
- Complain without fear of revenge and have your complaints reviewed in a timely manner.

Affordability

You have the right to:

- Request a detailed bill with an explanation of that bill after discharge.
- Information about resources to help pay for your care.

Personal Care

You have the right to:

- Know the names and jobs of the people who care for you.
- Be treated with respect and dignity in a setting that promotes a positive self-image.
- Personal privacy.
- Religious and other spiritual services that you choose.
- Make advance directives.
- Have your medical and end of life care wishes followed.
- Have your rights protected and respected during any research like activities.
- Refuse to allow taping, films, or other images of you for purposes other than your care.

Your Rights continued

Visitation

You have the right to:

- Know your visit rights, hours and limits that may apply to your visitors.
- Receive visitors of your choice with no discrimination.
- Know when the visitor's presence infringes on others' rights and/or safety.
- Know when you may not have a visitor because of a safety or medical reason.
- Withdraw or deny consent to receive specific visitors, either orally or in writing.
- To choose a support person to select visitors for you if you are unable to do so.

What you need to do

Be an Active Partner in Your Care

- Share as much health information with us as possible.
- Ask questions when you do not understand.
- Respect other people, their property and use civil language.
- Give us a copy of your advance directives.
- Tell us about changes in your condition.
- Follow hospital rules (to include your visitors)
- Tell us when you are in pain.
- Let us know if you are unable to follow your care orders.
- Leave your items of value at home.
- Meet financial commitments.
- Keep appointments.

500 Hospital Drive
Warrenton, VA 20186
540-316-5000

For comments, complaints or grievances, or to report safety concerns:

Call our Patient Advocate at (540) 316-5014
or contact a unit or hospital leader.

After normal business hours, please leave a message and you'll receive a call back the next business day.

You may also file a grievance with the following:

Virginia Department of Health
Office of Licensure and Certification
9960 Mayland Drive, Suite 401
Richmond, VA 23233
Phone: (800) 955-1819
EMail: OLC-Complaints@vdh.virginia.gov

Virginia Health Quality Center
9830 Mayland Drive, Suite J
Richmond, VA 23233
Phone: (800) 545-3814

Office of Quality and Patient Safety
The Joint Commission
1 Renaissance Boulevard
Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181
Fax: (630) 792-5636
EMail: patientsafetyreport@jointcommission.org